GENERAL PROVISIONS

5. Stallion owner reserves the right to participate or not participate in any incentive program, with or without notice to Mare Owner.

6. Mare Owner shall hold Stallion Owner and or Aaron's Ranch, and their agents, servants and employees, harmless for any death, sickness, disease, accident, theft, death or injury which may be suffered by the Mare and or her foals, as well as from any consequential damages arising there from, as well as from any other cause of action whatsoever arising out of, or connected in any way with the activities undertaken hereunder, regardless if the same results from Stallion Owner's or Aaron's Ranch own negligence.
7. Live Foal Guarantee (DOES NOT APPLY TO FROZEN EMBRYOS) A live foal means the foal shall stand and nurse.
8. The Stallion is bred to a full book of mares each year. This book is determined by the number of mares that the stallion manager anticipates being able to breed successfully during the breeding season. It is always the goal of the Stallion Manager to get the mare bred as soon as possible after her arrival at the farm. However, there may be times during the season when there are more mares in heat that can be bred on a given day. During these times the Stallion Manager must give priority to some mares over others. There are several factors that influence this decision. For example, priority may be given to mares that are maintained on the farm, opposed to mares that are hauled in with a breeding follicle. The Stallion Manager will do all that is possible to minimize lost breeding cycles in mares.

LIVE FOAL GUARANTEE PROVISIONS

9. As defined herein, "Live Foal" shall mean that the newborn foal stands and nurses without assistance for the first 24 hours. Failure to stand and nurse shall be evidenced by a written statement from a Licensed Veterinarian within one week from death. Such guarantee entitles Mare Owner to a re-breeding of the Mare to the Stallion in the following breeding season only. Costs associated with any reproductive services or mare care in the following breeding season shall be the responsibility of the Mare Owner. Live Foal Guarantee shall apply only if mare is pregnancy checked "safely in foal" by a licensed veterinarian at 12-45 days after breeding by ultrasound, or if ultrasound is not available, no later than 60 days following insemination/implantation. Mare Owner agrees to provide Stallion owner with written notification, signed by licensed veterinarian no later than 45 days following insemination/implantation.
10. If Mare miscarries, aborts or fails to conceive, the Mare Owner is entitled to a re-breeding of the Mare during the current season or the following season only, provided all fees and expenses have been paid. A Veterinarian's Certificate is required. All chute fees for a re-breeding shall be borne by the Mare Owner.
11. If the Mare dies or becomes unfit to breed, the Mare Owner is entitled to a re-breeding of another mare during the current season or the following season only with a substitute mare approved by Stallion Owner and which otherwise meets the requirements of this Agreement, with no additional breeding fee, provided all fees and expenses have been paid. A Veterinarian's Certificate is required. All chute fees for a re-breeding shall be borne by the Mare Owner.

 Proof of vaccination may be required. Failure to administer such vaccinations shall void the Live Foal Guarantee. Mare shall be de-wormed every 90 days throughout pregnancy. Proof of such de-worming, or approved alternative protocol is required. Failure to follow such de-worming schedule shall void the live Foal Guarantee.
13. The Live Foal Guarantee in this Contract is non-transferrable and non-assignable. Should the mare be sold or otherwise disposed of prior to the birth of the foal, the Live Foal Guarantee shall be void. However, the Stallion Owner may, in its sole discretion, upon a new application and payment of a booking fee, continue to honor the Live Foal Guarantee granted to the original Mare Owner, such intent to be reflected in a writing signed by Stallion Owner and the new Mare Owner, with the new Mare Owner agreeing to be bound by all of the the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
